Stay away. Way too difficult and time consuming given the learning curve and the TPKs.. Pretty cool experience where you make sort of electronic tracks one beat at a time, using 3 different shapes (beats?) that you place around in a cave. However I didn't feel like I had much control over customizing /tweaking the end result.

I played around with it for about 30 minutes. To my understanding: to place beats, you hit the trigger and it randomly creates one of the 3 types: red circle (high), green triangle (medium), blue square (low/drums). Then you activate it in your song by hitting it against a previously placed note.

Honestly I'm still not 100% sure how it works. I'd like to see a tutorial, and I'd also like to be able to customize the notes more once they're placed. Like change the pitch or volume, maybe using the height they are placed at?

Still its simple enough that anyone can hop in and mess around and make some neat compilations. There is an underlying automatic track that kicks in that brings it all together so no matter what you do it still sounds okay.. It's obvious, that graphics are heavily inspired by Limbo (first part with forest). Probably even exceeds it sometimes. This water and how every creature is made from pine needles, I really like it.

Gameplay is not anything like Limbo. Yes, there are some traps but they are pretty obvious, and there is a lot of foes. In most cases you don't have to fight, just get away from them. There is 10 levels and 5 bosses which are on the tradng cards (yes you have to fight most of them).

Is price tag a little high for ~3 hours? You're to judge, but there is nothing actually to choose from if you want more of the Limbo-feeling forest adventure with so much attention to details.. Took 9 mins to complete, including the glitches. It was 50% off but doesnt compare well to similar demos which are free.

As one reviewer says, the use of space is good, but with clipping the hidden places are not too hidden.

Jump scares are also a bit tame/lame.. I've played it a little... I'm not addicted though. I could quit any time I wanted...

But I don't want to.

I must not.

One more battle.

OKAY PLEASE SEND HELP I CANNOT STOP PLAYING IT'S BEEN 119 DAYS ALREADY.

I've only broken the surface of this game (but having played the other 2, as well as other titles), but I can already start to feel the story building to the climax of this installement as well as the series as a whole.

Jeff and the team have never disappointed and I have no reason to believe this will be any different.

For those unsure of whether or not to get this title you need to ask yourself one thing: do you want a story that you can immerse yourself in or do you care more about pleasing the eye.

Sure the graphics aren't the best, but the level of writing in the Spiderweb software games always leaves me wanting more and I think you will feel the same.

I hope you give this (and perhaps their other works) a chance, because for the price, you won't find a more well written series.

. The front and back won't line up correctly they are a bit out of place so you actually have to cut in one of the sides. I have tried on 3 different printers still the same problem, the guide doesn't have any other fixes in it in case of this happening. I've tried playing this in both demo and full mode. I'm an Oculus user btw, so maybe that makes a difference. I can't get the controls to work reliably, really just not at all. The first thing I noticed is that once you get a new table it doesn't drop to the floor and cannot be adjusted. The only option I found was "clear the room". It looked like people were doing well with it on YouTube so I took a chance and got the full version. At that point I started having problems with my touch controllers being intermittent then freezing completely. I can't recommend this game for Oculus users. I'm normally the type of person to get motion sickness in VR, so I was convinced I'd get sick here. Somehow I'm not, though. I dunno what you did, but I'm able to fly around and do all kinds of maneuvers with no problems at all.

Eagerly awaiting multiplayer so I have something to shoot at!. Bought this game on Steam Sale for Half Price ($3.50) and I think that's a decent price for it.

There are a few secrets and it's beatable in under 10 hours. if you're not afraid of grinding before each new area.

The camera jitters when you run into an object (which is annoying) and there are a few earnest errors in dialogue, but I feel like that makes the game more endearing. Only the main character is in 3d and the rest are flat, but I feel like that just makes the main character stand out more since the art welcomes it.

This is an indie RPG that was a cool find, if you can get it on sale, go for it.. Simple yet elegant twin-stick shooter offering you a satisfying frantic arcade experience for a small price.. A lot of people don't seem to like this game. (I guess if you expect platforming and controls similar to Supermeat Boy, that could be a problem.)

This is a fun little game that reminds me of Commander Keen (sans pogo stick) and a little of Metroid for some reason.

If you want a game that lets you brag about how sooper-1337 you are, don't buy this. If you just want a fun casual game, give this a shot!. This game had a very bad release and update history.

Luckily for us, the modders from subsim.com have fixed 90% of these errors and made several Megamods to enhance gameplay.

Also, this game lacks the same depth \(pun\) of SH3 and SH4. Crew management is less complicated and you get to speak to 5 sailors in total.. As good as the original with very pleasing and easy on the eye graphics.

Also has cool new features and gameplay - which do not take away from the original classic gameplay in my opinion.

Well done devs! A classic reborn.. Worthless DLC ever... lucky enough it's included in the Thief Collection bundle... I wouldn't bother to touch other booster pack... seriously...
